Canada In Decay Mass Immigration

Canada In Decay explains the origins of the ideology of immigrant multiculturalism and the inbuilt radicalizing nature of this ideology, and argues that the "theory of multicultural citizenship" is marred by a double standard which encourages minorities to affirm their collective cultural rights

The entire Canadian political establishment, the mainstream media and the academics, are all in harmonious unison with the banks and corporations, in promoting two myths to justify mass immigration. The first myth this book demolishes is the claim that immigration into Canada “enriches the country”, by demonstrating that mass immigration is not only leading to Euro-Canadians becoming a small minority in their own homeland, but because of the disparity in the birth-rate, the Euro-Canadian ...

Professor Ricardo Duchesne's Canada In Decay: Mass Immigration, Diversity, and the Ethnocide of European Canadians is intended to disrupt the narrative that abets these trends and argue for a more ethnocentric approach to Canadian identity and migration policy. It is written as an often venomous polemic against those who wish to shift Canada's identity away from its alleged heritage and towards a less ethnocentric and pluralistic future.

Western economists falsely concluded that mass immigration is beneficial by focusing on gross domestic output while ignoring per capita income and real wages of Indigenous Whites.

The Economic Argument Against Mass Immigration To Canada

Canada In Decay might be written for America, Europe and Australia. Not mentioned by Trudeau and most other world leaders: third world people add 80,000,000 (million) of themselves, net gain, annually. Thus, their line waiting to gain access to first world countries never ends, but grows exponentially. Thus, all immigration becomes futile.

Professor Ricardo Duchesne recently published an extensive Reply to my August 22 Review of his book Canada in Decay: Mass Immigration, Diversity, and the Ethnocide of European Canadians . At one point in this piece, Professor Duchesne demands I tell him when Germany and Spain were “racist and illiberal” before its globalist rulers “decided to open their borders to mass immigration.”

Standing By My Criticism of “Canada in Decay” | Merion West

In his 2017 book, Canada in Decay: Mass Immigration, Diversity, and the Ethnocide of Euro-Canadians, he argues that Canada is not a "nation of immigrants" but a nation created by Anglo and French pioneers and settlers. The book also questions what Duchesne argues are double standards of multiculturalism in granting both
