Proverbs Chapter 8 Explained In contrast to the evil woman of chapter 7, another “woman” is presented: Wisdom personified again as a prophetess whose call the son should heed. After calling to all classes of men to come and be wise, Wisdom praises in the first person her own moral excellence and value.

Proverbs Chapter 8 Explained - bible-studys.org

We learn from Proverbs Chapter 8, verses 22 through 30 that wisdom existed with God before the creation of the world (verse 23). Therefore, wisdom has existed from the beginning of time as it relates to man because man was created after the creation of the world. Or, to put it another way, wisdom has always existed from man’s perspective.
