CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY IN ASIA

Christianity in Asia has its roots in the very inception of Christianity, which originated from the life and teachings of Jesus in 1st-century Roman Judea. Christianity then spread through the missionary work of his apostles, first in the Levant and taking roots in the major cities such as Jerusalem and Antioch. According to tradition, further eastward expansion occurred via the preaching of Thomas the Apostle, who established Christianity in the Parthian Empire and India. The very First Ecumeni

The age at which Christianity was introduced to Asia—here argued as the first century in India and the seventh century in China (3)—or the universal presence of Jesus in all cultures and religions (46-47) must not be conflated with the theological and historical development and domination of Christianity accumulated in the West.

Christian Theology in Asia, Journal of Reformed Theology ...

Theology in Asia has been taught by Western missionaries. The West has its own theological formulations derived out of its own cultural background, Calvinism, Arminianism, death of God, etc. Yet in Asia the circumstances facing Christians differ from the West. Asian Christians must make their theologies relevant to their living situations in Asia.
