Intruder in the Dust (1949) - IMDb

These two are probably quite significant factors in Clarence Brown and Ben Maddow's 1949 adaptation for MGM of William Faulkner's Intruder in the Dust (1948). For example, the move from a "serious" novel to a Hollywood film with mass appeal probably helps to explain why Faulkner's morally complex story of a child's growth in racial consciousness becomes on the screen a more simple "whodunit."
