Marry Him! The case for settling for Mr. Good Enough

This was about the time that Lori Gottlieb wrote "Marry Him! The Case for Settling for Mr. Good Enough" (which later became a book) in The Atlantic, exhorting young women to lower their standards for a mate, lest they end up sad and alone. While I wasn't influenced by that essay specifically, the anxiety of being 33 and unmarried was getting to me.

Marry Him? When Are You "Settling"? | Psychology Today

Marriage is about small acts of kindness that bond you over a lifetime. It's quietly romantic. He makes her tea. She goes to the doctor appointment with him. They listen to each other's daily trivia. They put up with each other's quirks. They're there for each other." — Lori Gottlieb, Marry Him: The Case for Settling for Mr. Good Enough

Marry Him Quotes by Lori Gottlieb - Goodreads

Marry Him: The Case for Settling for Mr. Good Enough. by Lori Gottlieb. 1. In the prologue, Lori Gottlieb realizes that while she'd never made an actual list of qualities she was looking for in a guy, she did have a very specific unconscious checklist in her head. Do you have a list --- a physical one or a mental one --- of your ideal mate?
