Monarchy vs Aristocracy When you take both monarchy and aristocracy, you can see similarities as well as differences between both forms of government. Both, monarchy and aristocracy, are related to ruling or governing of a country or a nation. Monarchy is a form of government in which the power and the sole authority is in one or two individuals' hands. In contrast, aristocracy is a form of government where ruling lays in the hands of few people, and these were usually considered to be the ...
