Strangers on a Train (1950) is a psychological thriller novel by Patricia Highsmith about two men whose lives become entangled after one of them proposes they "trade" murders. It was adapted as a film in 1951 by director Alfred Hitchcock and again in 1969 by Robert Sparr. It has since been adapted in whole or in part for film and television several times.

Strangers on a Train (novel) - Wikipedia

'Strangers on a Train' is a murder-suspense, from director Alfred Hitchcock, based on the 1950 debut novel by Patricia Highsmith, with a screenplay co-written by Raymond Chandler. It's a very good film too, effectively staged, full of interesting scenes and characters, with first-rate camerawork and atmospheric lighting; Hitchcock builds the tension well throughout the film's 96 minute duration.
