8/10 Note: this is the omnibus edition and even though it has the same title as the first book, as the author mentions, the story was actually written as one. This is the second series I'm finishing from Westerfeld (also read Leviathan), and even though I didn't expect it at first I found it quite entertaining.

Succession (Succession #1-2) by Scott Westerfeld

Succession cleverly combines passages from contemporary 15th century chronicles with a fictional depiction of the book's main characters, in particular Margaret of Anjou and Margaret Beaufort. These 2 very young women are completely focused on their sons' interests even though, in the case of Margaret Beaufort, she has been forcibly ...
