Mehdi Charef nous donne l'impression d'avoir passé des années en banlieue; il parle en expert, sans ce détachement scientifique des non-banlieusards, il dit la vérité crue comme elle est et est parvenu à créer ce récit poignant qui capte et qui nous fait regretter sa brièveté.

Tea in the Harem is an excellent account of life in the slums of Paris. It is at times disturbingly real and deals with foreigners trying to make a go of it in the mean streets of France. I liked it because it reveals another side of Paris; a bleak, dirty, and dangerous side not often dealt with in books and movies.
