The Enemy Higson

The Enemy is the first book of a series of novels by Charlie Higson. The story takes place in post-apocalyptic London, where an unknown virus has taken control of adults and turned them into hungry zombies keen on eating teenagers and children alike. The Enemy is part of both the horror fiction and young adult fiction genres. When I first read the book, I was immediately captivated by the way Higson described the hopeless and desolate city, as well as by the perspective jumps in each chapter.
