Trials Test Our Faith. Consider these two important Greek words: Peirasmos is the word for "trials," and it means, "proving, adversity, affliction, trouble sent by God and serving to test or prove one's character, faith, holiness."; Dokimion is the word for "testing," and it means, "the proving; that by which something is tried or proved, a test."

Trials Test Our Faith and Prove Its Genuineness - Scott ...

God tries our faith to secure the preciousness of it. 1 Peter 1:7 is a great verse, and it should always be read in conjunction with Malachi 3:3. The gold of our life is to His 'praise, glory and honour' when it is separated from the dross, and the trial of our faith is so precious because it brings about this separation.

When Trials Come — Part One - YouTube

Trials: Trials and Faith. Some Christians think that they have a guaranteed a way to escape trials. They point to biblical promises that God will intervene for those who have faith in his Son. However, God not only promises to help us in our trials—he also promises us trials! Christ did not come to bring us a trouble-free life.
