Right before Proctor's execution, Hale tells Elizabeth that God won't judge Proctor for giving a false confession because "life is God's most precious gift." Hale feels personally responsible for the witch hunt, and Proctor wouldn't have to lie at all if Hale hadn't believed Abigail's lies in the first place.

Important quotes from Act IV—Epilogue in The Crucible. Let you not mistake your duty as I mistook my own. I came into this village like a bridegroom to his beloved, bearing gifts of high religion; the very crowns of holy law I brought, and what I touched with my bright confidence, it died; and where I turned the eye of my great faith, blood flowed up.

The Crucible Quotes: Act IV—Epilogue | SparkNotes

In The Crucible, the idea of goodness is a major theme. Almost every character is concerned with the concept of goodness, because their religion teaches them that the most important thing in life is how they will be judged by God after they die. They want to be found good, because being good will make them right with God.
